Acknowledgement

To the great institution that gave me the opportunity for this academic program, Lead City University, I am grateful for the platform given me to learn, unlearn, relearn, and to add value to my life and to consolidate on my academic success. My special thanks and appreciation go to the Federal Ministry of Women Affairs, Abuja; Ministry of Women Affairs in Osun State, Lagos State, Delta State and Anambra State. Gratitude to the University Library, Lead City, Ibadan and National Archives, University of Ibadan.

My appreciation goes to my supervisor, Dr. Mrs. Modupe Albert, for her outstanding encouragement, mentorship, scholarly advice and guidance throughout the duration of this program. My gratitude also to the HOD of Politics and International Relations Department, Dr Adebola Alade for the support rendered during the course of the study. I appreciate Prof. Akeem Amodu, who also mentored and tutored me during this program, his guidance and instructions were indeed commendable, and I'm happy to have passed through such an erudite scholar. I appreciate Dr. R. O Badru who has been an exceptional guardian and tutor to me all through the duration of this program; I thank Dr. Emma Jimoh for his scholarly counsel during the course of the program. I indeed appreciate Dr. Olubunmi Akande for her scholarly advice and guidance throughout the duration of this program. The academic advice and guidance of Dr. Sarumi throughout the duration of this program is also worthy of gratitude. I would like to express my profound gratitude to Dr. Akuche, Dr Oluyemi, and other lecturers in the Department. I extend a big thank you for exceptional care and wonderful attention given to me from the commencement of the program to its completion.
