Acknowledgment

I acknowledge the management of Lead City University, Ibadan for providing the needed support and conducive environment during the study. I also appreciated the support of communities and palaces consulted during the period this research work was carried out. To my project supervisors, Dr. Olubunmi Akande and Associate Prof. Olufemi Badru, I would like to convey my sincere gratitude for your guidance, kindness, and professional support as I wrote this manuscript. Their emotional support and words of encouragement during the difficult time kept me going while I finished this research. I would especially like to thank the Head of Department, Assoc Prof. Akeem Amodu for his numerous valuable contributions to the dissemination of outstanding information during my program in the department. I thank the Dean faculty of Management and Social Sciences, Prof. Omolara Campbell, the Provost and staff of Postgraduate School and the departmental PG Coordinator, Dr. Modupe Albert and lectures of the department Dr. Adeola, Dr. Emma Jimo, Mrs O.Olayemi and Mr. C, Akuche. I am incredibly grateful to Prof. Jide Owoeye for providing me with a scholarship through his staff welfare development program so that I could complete my Ph.D. degree. May the Almighty God continue to lead, guide, and bless him and his family. For their spiritual, emotional, and financial support, I also want to thank my family members, especially Alhaji Olawoyin AbdulAkeem, Dr & Dr (Mrs) Salawu, Mrs Muminat Olawoyin, and Mrs. Ibrahim Badrat for their enormous contributions to this endeavour, I also owe a debt of gratitude to Dr. Tayo Fajobi, Mr. Abiola Adeosun, Mr. Adeoye Azeez, Mr. Adedokun Taofeeq, Mrs Ariyo and Alhaji Onigbanjo Abdulganiyu. I had especially like to thank my friends and classmates. Above all, I want to express my gratitude to everyone who has helped me get where I am today in different ways.

I alone stand responsible for the errors, if any found in the work
